

HAITEC Opening Line Maintenance Station in Nuremberg

Global Support and Customer Care part of expansion plans

Hahn Airport, July 21, 2016. HAITEC Aircraft Maintenance GmbH is opening a Line Maintenance Station at Nuremberg Airport at the beginning of November 2016. SunExpress Deutschland is HAITEC's first customer at the new station. HAITEC will carry out all Line Maintenance activities for SunExpress Deutschland's B737 NG fleet, as well as provide AOG support.

With a fleet of 15 Boeing 737-800, SunExpress Deutschland offers flights from several German airports to various popular vacation destinations, including the Canary Islands, the Red Sea region, as well as the Mediterranean Sea.

"It is HAITEC's strategy and part of our Customer Care program to establish Line Maintenance stations wherever possible and feasible for our customers. We will continue to seize any opportunity to expand our services in Nuremberg to additional airlines operating diverse aircraft types. Furthermore, we are in discussions to open line maintenance stations at other key airports worldwide," confirms Frank Rott, CEO of HAITEC.
